OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MEMORANDUM NO. 1-140-6

SUBJECT: Organization and Functions of the Office of Personnel

RECISSION: OPM 1-140-5 (1-59) dated 20 January 1959

The attached materials describe the organization and functions of the Office of Personnel and provide a directory to assist other Agency components in referring questions and problems to the proper unit within the Office of Personnel.

1. Attachment 1 is the organization chart for the Office of Personnel.
2. Attachment 2 contains the functional statements for the several Divisions within the Office of Personnel.
3. Attachment 3 lists key officials within the Office of Personnel.
4. Attachment 4 is a directory to assist callers in referring routine matters to the individual normally handling Office of Personnel responsibility for the subject at hand. If the individual listed is not available, there is ordinarily another person in the same office who will be able to deal with the question. Questions of a policy or precedent-making nature or matters of special sensitivity may be referred to the cognizant Division or Branch Chief or to the immediate office of the Director of Personnel.
5. Attachment 5 is a directory of the Clandestine Services Personnel Division to assist callers in referring matters to the individual normally handling the subject at hand.

OFFICE OF PERSONNEL

FUNCTIONAL STATEMENT

Director of Personnel

The Director of Personnel is responsible for the development and administration of an Agency-wide personnel program, including formulating and recommending policies, regulations, and standards which shall govern the administration of personnel throughout the Agency; advising and assisting administrative and operating officials on all matters of personnel administration; inspecting, reviewing and evaluating all phases of personnel management activity wherever performed in the Agency for compliance with policies, regulations and standards for adequacy of personnel programs at all levels of the Agency; representing the Agency on civilian and military personnel matters with other Government organizations; and conducting research in the field of personnel management as required in support of operational programs.

Special Assistant to the Director of Personnel

Responsible for representing the Director of Personnel in employee disciplinary and suitability cases, including all cases which may involve actions having an adverse effect on an employee's status or pay, such as separations, reductions in grade and suspensions. The Special Assistant provides staff support to the Director of Personnel in the development and administration of policies relating to such cases. He conducts liaison with other Agency officials on these matters and approves on behalf of the Director of Personnel personnel actions taken in connection with such cases. He also represents the Director of Personnel on the Medical-Security-Personnel Review Panel and the Overseas Evaluation Panel and provides staff support to such panels and serves as Executive Secretary to the Agency Disposition Board.

Plans Staff

Responsible for providing staff support to the Director of Personnel in the development of personnel policies and programs. The Staff coordinates and participates in the development of regulatory and procedural materials and conducts statistical studies and surveys. The Staff also provides staff support to the CIA Career Council and Honor Awards Board.
